To the Stockholders of CD Radio Inc.:

The Board of Directors of CD Radio Inc. (the "Company") is seeking the approval of stockholders for a proposed amendment to the Certificate of Designations of the Company's 5% Delayed Convertible Preferred Stock (the "5% Preferred Stock") to allow the Company to redeem the 5% Preferred Stock upon the sale of any equity or debt securities for an aggregate amount of $100 million or more.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT HOLDERS OF THE COMPANY'S COMMON AND 5% PREFERRED STOCK CONSENT TO THE AMENDMENT.

THE CONSENT OF THE HOLDERS OF BOTH THE COMMON STOCK AND THE COMPANY'S 5% PREFERRED STOCK IS REQUIRED TO APPROVE THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT.

The Consent Solicitation Statement on the following pages describes the matters being presented to the stockholders in this consent solicitation. Because this solicitation of written consents is in lieu of a meeting of stockholders, there will be no meeting of stockholders held in connection with this consent solicitation.

We hope you will have your stock represented by signing, dating and returning your consent in the enclosed envelope as soon as possible. If you submit a properly executed consent within sixty (60) days of the delivery of the first dated consent delivered to the Company, your stock will be voted in favor of the proposed amendment. Any other action by you will have the practical effect of voting against the proposed amendment.

Sincerely,

Lawrence F. Gilberti
Director and Secretary

CONSENT SOLICITATION STATEMENT
MAY 16, 1997

INFORMATION REGARDING CONSENTS

This consent solicitation statement and the accompanying form of consent are furnished in connection with the solicitation of stockholder consents by the Board of Directors of CD Radio Inc. (the "Company"), in lieu of a meeting of stockholders, in connection with an amendment proposed to the Certificate of Designations (the "Certificate of Designations") of the Company's 5% Delayed Convertible Preferred Stock (the "Consent Solicitation"). Only stockholders of record on the books of the Company at the close of business on June ___, 1997 (the "Record Date") will be entitled to submit a consent. It is anticipated that these consent solicitation materials will be mailed to stockholders on or about June ___, 1997.

The Company is incorporated in Delaware and is therefore subject to the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL"). Section 228 of the DGCL permits the stockholders of the Company to take action without a meeting if consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, are signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted. The DGCL also provides that the minimum necessary votes must be received by the Company within 60 days of the date of the first such written consent. Accordingly, if, within 60 days following its receipt of the first written consent approving the proposed amendment, the Company receives executed consents approving the proposed amendment from the holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock, par value $.001 (the "Common Stock") and from the holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding 5% Delayed Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $.001 (the "5% Preferred Stock"), and those consents have not been revoked, the stockholders will be deemed to have approved the proposed amendment.

All written consents received by the Company, regardless of when dated, will expire unless valid, written, unrevoked consents constituting the necessary vote for approval of the proposed amendment are received by the Company within 60 days of the date of the first such consent.

As required by the DGCL, if the proposed amendment is approved by the stockholders, the Company will promptly notify the stockholders from whom consent has not been received.

A consent executed by a stockholder may be revoked at any time provided that a written, dated revocation is executed and delivered to the Company on or prior to the time at which the Company receives written consents sufficient to approve the proposed amendment. The Company intends to amend the Certificate of Designations as soon as practicable following the receipt of the necessary consents. A revocation may be in any written form validly signed by the stockholder as long as it clearly states that the consent previously given is no longer effective. The revocation should be addressed to Lawrence F. Gilberti, Secretary, CD Radio Inc., 6th Floor, 1001 22nd Street N.W., Washington, D.C. 20037.

VOTING SECURITIES AND PRINCIPAL HOLDERS

Holders of record of the Company's Common and 5% Preferred Stock, at the close of business on June ___, 1997, will be entitled to submit a consent on the accompanying form. On that date, the Company had outstanding [10,313,391] shares of Common Stock and [5,400,000] shares of 5% Preferred Stock. Each share of stock is entitled to one vote in the Consent Solicitation. Consents evidencing a majority of the outstanding shares of each of the Common Stock and the 5% Preferred Stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote are required to approve the proposed amendment being submitted to the stockholders of the Company for approval in the Consent Solicitation. To be counted toward the majority required for approval of the proposed amendment, a consent must be delivered to the Company within 60 days of the delivery of the first dated consent.

With respect to the proposed amendment, any action other than the delivery of a properly executed consent within such 60 day period, including abstentions and broker nonvotes, will have the practical effect of voting against the amendment.

The following table sets forth certain information regarding beneficial ownership of the Company's Common Stock as of June ___, 1997 of (i) each stockholder known by the Company to be the beneficial owner of more than 5% of the outstanding Common Stock, (ii) each director of the Company, (iii) each executive officer of the Company and (iv) all directors and officers as a group. Except as otherwise indicated, the Company believes that the beneficial owners of the Common Stock listed below, based on information furnished by such owners, have sole investment and voting power with respect to such shares, subject to community property laws where applicable. The table also sets forth information concerning the number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of shares of the Company's 5% Preferred Stock to certain holders of the 5% Preferred Stock. Such information does not give effect to the Company's right to refuse to honor a request for conversion prior to receipt of FCC approval of the conversion of the 5% Preferred Stock (the "FCC Conversion Condition"). The Company has applied for such approval, but approval has not yet been granted.

The source of the information in this footnote is the Schedule 13D dated April 11, 1997 filed by Robertson Stephens & Co., et al.

 - (12) Does not give effect to the Company's right to refuse to honor a request for conversion subject to satisfaction of the FCC Conversion Condition.
 - (13) Estimated solely for the purposes of this table. Such beneficial ownership represents an estimate of the number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon the conversion of shares of 5% Preferred Stock beneficially owned by such person. Assuming a conversion date of June 23, 1997 and all dividends on shares of the 5% Preferred Stock are accrued but unpaid. (See "Description of 5% Delayed Convertible Preferred Stock" for definitions of capitalized terms.) The number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the shares of the 5% Preferred Stock would equal the Liquidation Preference of the shares being converted plus any Cash Payments divided by the then-effective conversion price applicable to the Common Stock (the "Conversion Price"). The Conversion Price, as of any date up to and including November 15, 1997, is determined in accordance with a formula based on market prices of the Common Stock or actual prices at which the converting holder sold the Common Stock, in either case multiplied by an amount equal to 1 minus the Applicable Percentage. The actual
- number of shares of Common Stock offered hereby is subject to adjustment and could be materially less or more than the estimated amount indicated depending upon factors which cannot be predicted by the Company at this time, including, among others, application of the conversion provisions based on market prices prevailing at the actual date of conversion and whether dividends on shares of 5% Preferred Stock are paid in cash or added to the Liquidation Preference. This presentation is not intended to constitute a prediction as to the future market price of the Common Stock or as to when holders will elect to convert shares of the 5% Preferred Stock into shares of Common Stock. See "Description of the 5% Delayed Convertible Preferred Stock."
- (14) Includes 1,114,630 shares of 5% Preferred Stock held on its own behalf and on behalf of its Designated A/C High Yield fund.
 - (15) Includes 1,137,155 shares of 5% Preferred Stock. Everest Capital International, Ltd. has agreed that it will not, following any conversion of its shares, be the beneficial owner of more than 9.99% of the outstanding Common Stock unless it chooses to waive this restriction upon 61 days prior notice to the Company. If it waives this restriction upon proper notice, Everest Capital International, Ltd. would beneficially own 2,370,286 shares of Common Stock, representing 15.6% of the shares outstanding.
 - (16) Includes 734,286 shares of 5% Preferred Stock. The Mainstay Funds, on behalf of its High Yield Corporate Bond Fund Series, has agreed that it will not, following any conversion of its shares, be the beneficial owner of more than 9.99% of the outstanding Common Stock unless it chooses to waive this restriction upon 2 days prior notice to the Company. If it waives this restriction upon proper notice, The Mainstay Funds, on behalf of its High Yield Corporate Bond Fund Series, would beneficially own 1,530,545 shares of Common Stock, representing 12.9% of the shares outstanding.
 - (17) Includes 427,020 shares of 5% Preferred Stock. Everest Capital Fund, L.P. has agreed that it will not, following any conversion of its shares, be the beneficial owner of more than 9.99% of the outstanding Common Stock unless it chooses to waive this restriction upon 61 days prior notice to the Company.
 - (18) Includes 450,536 shares of 5% Preferred Stock. Grace Brothers, Ltd. has agreed that it will not, following any conversion of its shares, be the beneficial owner of more than 9.99% of the outstanding Common Stock unless it chooses to waive this restriction upon 61 days prior notice to the Company.
 - (19) Includes 287,700 shares of 5% Preferred Stock.

PROPOSAL:

APPROVAL OF THE AMENDMENT TO THE
CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION

The Certificate of Designations, included as part of the Articles of Incorporation of the Company, as currently in effect, provides that the Company is authorized to redeem the 5% Preferred Stock upon a public offering in which the Company sells Common Stock for net cash proceeds to the Company in an amount not less than $100 million prior to October 15, 1997.

On June ___, 1997, the Board of Directors adopted, subject to stockholder approval, an amendment to the Certificate of Designations to allow the Company to redeem the 5% Preferred Stock in whole (but not in part) upon the sale, on or prior to November 15, 1997, by the Corporation of any equity or debt securities for net cash proceeds in an amount not less than $100 million. The proposed amendment does not affect any terms or rights of the Company's Common Stock. As proposed to be amended, Section 3(e)(i) of the Certificate of Designations would read as follows:

If the Corporation sells any securities, including, without limitation, common stock, preferred stock, debt securities or any combination thereof, for net cash proceeds to the Corporation in an amount not less than $100 million on or prior to November 15, 1997 (a "Qualifying Offering"), the Corporation may, upon consummation of the Qualifying Offering, redeem the 5% Preferred Stock in whole (but not in part) for an amount per share in cash equal to (A) the sum of the Liquidation Preference plus any Cash Payments due (B) divided by 72.125%. The Corporation shall give notice of such redemption pursuant to this subsection (e) in the same manner as set forth for Redemption Notices generally.

PURPOSE AND EFFECT OF THE AMENDMENT

Since 1990, the Company has been engaged in the development of a subscription based satellite radio system ("CD Radio"). In order to provide CD Radio service, the Company is required to obtain a license from the Federal Communications Commission (an "FCC License"). On April 1, 1997, the Federal Communications Commission held an auction for two FCC Licenses. The Company was one of two successful bidders for an FCC License with a winning bid of $83,346,000.

In order to finance the cost of the FCC License, the Company received commitments to purchase approximately $200 million of the Company's 5% Delayed Convertible Preferred Stock, subject principally to the Company being a winning bidder for the FCC License. In March 1997, the Board of Directors authorized the designation of up to 8,000,000 shares of the 5% Preferred Stock. In April 1997, following the FCC auction, the Company completed a private placement in which the Company sold 5,400,000 shares of the 5% Preferred Stock with aggregate proceeds totaling approximately $135 million. The Company intends to use substantially all of the net proceeds from the private placement to finance the purchase price of the FCC License, for cash reserves, and for working capital or general corporate purposes.

Under the Certificate of Designations, the Company is allowed to redeem the 5% Preferred Stock in whole (but not in part) upon the consummation of a registered public offering (other than for stock issuable pursuant to a registration statement on Form S-8 or S-4) on or prior to October 15, 1997 in which the Company sells Common Stock for net cash proceeds in an amount not less than $100 million.

The Board of Directors believes that it is in the Company's best interests to allow the Company to redeem the 5% Preferred Stock upon an offering of any type of equity or debt securities. After consulting with Batchelder & Co., the Company's financial advisor, the Board of Directors determined that the requirement of raising $100 million through a registered public offering consisting solely of Common Stock, on or prior to October 15, 1997, is too restrictive in light of the financing options realistically available to the Company.

If the proposed amendment is approved by shareholders, the Company will promptly file a Certificate of Amendment to the Certificate of Designations, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, with the Delaware Secretary of State promptly and will take any other action necessary to effect the proposed amendment.

DESCRIPTION OF 5% DELAYED CONVERTIBLE PREFERRED STOCK

On March 19, 1997, the Board of Directors authorized the issuance of up to 8,000,000 shares of the 5% Preferred Stock for the purposes described above. As of June ___, 1997, the Company had 5,400,000 shares of the 5% Preferred outstanding held of record by 48 entities, and had agreed to grant a warrant to purchase an additional 486,000 shares at $25.00 per share.

DIVIDENDS. Each share of the 5% Preferred Stock is entitled to receive dividends at the rate of $1.25 per annum, payable semi-annually on April 15 and October 15 of each year, in preference to any payment made on any other shares of capital stock of the Company. Any dividend payable on the 5% Preferred Stock may be paid, at the option of the Company, either (i) in cash or (ii) by adding the amount of such dividend to the Liquidation Preference (as defined below). Each share of the 5% Preferred Stock is also entitled to a liquidation preference of $25 per share, plus all accrued but unpaid dividends (the "Liquidation Preference"), in preference to any other class or series of capital stock of the Company. Other than the consent rights described below with respect to certain corporate actions, and except as otherwise provided by applicable law, holders of the 5% Preferred Stock have no voting rights.

CONVERSION. The 5% Preferred Stock is convertible by the holders into shares of Common Stock at any time, provided that the Company is not obligated to honor any request for conversion of the 5% Preferred Stock at any time certain governmental approvals of the issuance of the Common Stock upon such conversion have not been obtained. If such approvals (other than with respect to a holder or group of holders holding more than 50% of the voting securities of the Company) are not obtained by 360 days after April 9, 1997 (the "First Closing"), the Company shall, at the request of any holder, repurchase the shares of the 5% Preferred Stock held by such holder at a purchase price per share equal to the sum of the Liquidation Preference plus any other cash payments due to such holder ("Cash Payments"), divided by 72.125% (the "Maximum Price"). The number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the shares of the 5% Preferred Stock will equal the Liquidation Preference of the shares being converted plus any Cash Payments divided by the then-effective conversion price applicable to the Common Stock (the "Conversion Price"). The Conversion Price, as of any date up to and including November 15, 1997, is determined in accordance with a formula based on market prices of the Common Stock or actual prices at which the converting holder sold the Common Stock, in either case multiplied by an amount equal to 1 minus the Applicable Percentage. At any date after November 15, 1997, the Conversion Price is determined in accordance with a formula based on (i) market prices of the Common Stock between October 15, 1997 and November 15, 1997, (ii) market prices of the Common Stock during the three consecutive trading days immediately preceding the date of conversion and (iii) actual prices at which the converting holder sold the Common Stock, in any case multiplied by 72.125%. The Applicable Percentage is as follows:

CONVERSION AFTER THE FOLLOWING DATE	APPLICABLE PERCENTAGE

4/15/97	14.375%
5/15/97	18.125%
6/15/97	19.875%
7/15/97	21.625%
8/15/97	23.250%
9/15/97	24.875%
10/15/97	25.000%
11/15/97	27.875%

The 5% Preferred Stock is at all times subject to adjustment for customary anti-dilution events such as stock splits, stock dividends, reorganizations and certain mergers affecting the Common Stock. Three years or more after the date of original issuance of the 5% Preferred Stock, the Company may require the holders of the 5% Preferred Stock to convert such shares into Common Stock at the then applicable Conversion Price and all Cash Payments due on a date specified in the notice of forced conversion. However, the conversion shall not occur if the Company has commenced bankruptcy proceedings, ceased operations or shall be in default for money borrowed in excess of $50 million.

REQUIRED REDEMPTION. The Company must also reserve and keep available out of its authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock, solely for the purpose of effecting the conversion of the 5% Preferred Stock, at least such number of shares of its Common Stock that is the greater of (i) 10 million shares and (ii) 1.5 times the number as shall from time to time be sufficient to effect the conversion of all outstanding shares of the 5% Preferred Stock. The Company has agreed to take such corporate action necessary to increase its number of authorized shares of Common Stock to at least 100 million shares on or before the 90th calendar day after the First Closing. If the Company does not have sufficient shares of Common Stock reserved to effect such conversion and fails to take such corporate action necessary to authorize or reserve sufficient shares of Common Stock, then at any time at the request of any holder of shares of the 5% Preferred Stock, the Company shall purchase from such holder the number of shares of the 5% Preferred Stock equal to such holder's pro-rata share of the number of shares of the 5% Preferred Stock that would not be able to be converted due to an insufficient number of shares of Common Stock reserved for such purpose at the Maximum Price. In addition, if prior to the earlier of April 21, 1998 or the closing of a Qualifying Offering (as defined below), the FCC awards more than two licenses permitting the licensee to provide satellite digital audio radio services and more than two licensees commence or announce an intention to commence satellite digital audio radio services, then upon the request of the holders of more than one-third of the outstanding shares of the 5% Preferred Stock, the Company shall purchase one-half of the shares of the 5% Preferred Stock held by each requesting shareholder at a purchase price per share equal to the sum of the Liquidation Preference plus any Cash Payments divided by 1 minus the Applicable Percentage. If a reorganization occurs, each holder of the 5% Preferred Stock may require the Company to redeem the 5% Preferred Stock at the Maximum Price. A Reorganization is defined as any reorganization or any reclassification of the Common Stock or other capital stock of the Company or any consolidation or merger of the Company with or into any other corporation or corporations or a sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company. If the holder chooses not to require the Company to redeem such holder's shares, the shares will be convertible into the number of shares or other property to which a holder of the number of shares of Common Stock deliverable upon conversion of such share of 5% Preferred Stock not so redeemed would have been entitled upon the reorganization.

REDEMPTION. The 5% Preferred Stock may be redeemed in whole but not in part at the Maximum Price by the Company at any time beginning on the date that is 10 months after the date of original issuance of the 5% Preferred Stock, plus one day for each day during which (x) a registration statement has not been declared effective with respect to the Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the 5% Preferred Stock by the 90th calendar day after the original issuance of the 5% Preferred Stock or (y) any such registration statement is suspended or the related prospectus is not current, complete or otherwise usable. The Company may not exercise its right of redemption unless (i) the average closing price of the Common Stock as reported in the Wall Street Journal for the 20 consecutive trading days prior to the notice of redemption shall equal or exceed $18 per share (subject to adjustments) and (ii) the shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the 5% Preferred Stock are registered for resale by an effective registration.

under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. The Company also may redeem the 5% Preferred Stock in whole but not in part at the Maximum Price if the Company sells Common Stock for cash in an amount not less than $100 million in a registered underwritten public offering prior to October 15, 1997 ("Qualifying Offering").

DILUTION OF COMMON STOCK. The exact number of shares issuable upon conversion of all of the 5% Preferred Stock cannot currently be estimated but, generally, such issuances of Common Stock will vary inversely with the market price of the Common Stock. The holders of Common Stock ownership interest will be materially diluted by conversion of the 5% Preferred Stock, which dilution will depend on, among other things, the future market price of the Common Stock and conversion elections made by holders of the 5% Preferred Stock. The terms of the 5% Preferred Stock do not provide for any limit on the number of shares of Common Stock which the Company may be required to issue in respect thereof.

CASH PAYMENTS. The private placement agreement relating to the sale of the 5% Preferred Stock specifies certain circumstances in which the Company must make a cash payment to each holder of the 5% Preferred Stock (or underlying securities issued or issuable upon conversion of the 5% Preferred Stock). The Company must make a cash payment equal to 3% of the Liquidation Preference per month to each holder if the Company fails: (i) within 90 days of the date of the First Closing to increase the number of authorized shares of Common Stock to at least 100 million shares; (ii) within 90 days of the date of the First Closing to file and cause to be declared effective a registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933 with respect to the resale of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the 5% Preferred Stock; (iii) within 90 days of the date of the First Closing to obtain any governmental approvals necessary for the conversion of the 5% Preferred Stock; (iv) to honor any request for conversion of the 5% Preferred Stock except as permitted by the terms and conditions of the 5% Preferred Stock; or (v) to maintain the listing of the Common Stock on Nasdaq, the New York Stock Exchange or the American Stock Exchange. A similar cash payment must be made if, after effecting a registration statement with respect to the resale of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the 5% Preferred Stock, the use of the prospectus is suspended for more than 60 cumulative days in the aggregate in any twelve month period. In addition, if the Company fails at any time to reserve a sufficient number of shares of Common Stock for issuance upon conversion of the 5% Preferred Stock, it must make a cash payment equal to 3% of the Liquidation Preference (proportionately reduced by the amount of shares that are so authorized and reserved) per month to the holders of the 5% Preferred Stock. The private placement agreement also provides that prior to the completion of a Qualifying Offering, the Company may not undertake to conduct any debt or equity financing that is not PARI PASSU or junior to the 5% Preferred Stock in seniority, structure and maturity.

Consent of the holders of a majority of the 5% Preferred Stock is required before the Company may take certain corporate actions or pay dividends on Common Stock and certain other corporate actions taken in connection with a partial repurchase of 5% Preferred Stock require the consent of all holders of 5% Preferred Stock.

EFFECT OF AMENDMENT

The Certificate of Designations currently allows the Corporation to redeem the 5% Preferred Stock in whole but not in part upon the consummation of a Qualifying Offering. As currently defined, a Qualifying Offering is a registered public offering (other than for stock issuable pursuant to a registration statement in connection with either a business combination or an employee benefit plan) on Form S-8 or S-4) in which the Corporation sells Common Stock in an amount not less than $100 million prior to October 15, 1997.

If the Amendment is approved, a Qualifying Offering will be defined to include any transaction in which the Corporation sells any securities, including, without limitation, common stock, preferred stock, debt securities or any combination thereof, in an amount not less than $100 million and the time to complete such Qualified Offering will be extended from October 15, 1997 to any time on or prior to November 15, 1997.

VOTE REQUIRED AND BOARD OF DIRECTORS' RECOMMENDATION

The affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Common Stock outstanding and a majority of the shares of 5% Preferred Stock outstanding is required to approve the proposed amendment to the Certificate of Designations.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE PROPOSAL.

SOLICITATION EXPENSES

The Company will bear the cost of soliciting consents. Consents are being solicited by mail and, in addition, directors, officers, and employees of the Company may solicit consents personally or by telephone or facsimile transmission. No additional compensation will be paid on account of any such solicitations. Although there is no formal agreement to do so, the Company will reimburse custodians, brokerage houses, nominees, and other fiduciaries for the cost of sending Consent Solicitation material to their principals.
